Dear Kabir,

I have quickly browsed your research proposal (but have to postpone a more careful read for later). Given your overall interests, I'll be happy to serve on your committee in principle. We have to work out the logistics and institutional arrangements, so this is provisional. I think it's best if I come down to SAU campus one of these days and have a joint meeting with you and your supervisor (and other members of the committee, if any). Fridays work best for me, in general. Please ask Namrata to coordinate this.

Best,

Parikshit.
